

THE COMPANY DIRECTOR. EXPANDED DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER COMPANIES ACT 2016

COURSE INTRODUCTION

Being a director of a company is a demanding and challenging task, even in the best of circumstances. In accepting the position, a director automatically assumes onerous duties, responsibilities and personal liability under both common law and statutory law. Directors are under increasing pressure to become more accountable, transparent and responsive to stakeholders and community interests. The Companies Act 2016 legislation as well as voluntary and statutory codes aimed at improving standards of corporate governance make this even more challenging.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course is to provide participants, especially company directors with the latest development on their roles and responsibilities of directors under the Companies Act 2016 and offers a practical insight on the application of the law to fulfill the obligations and responsibilities and how to avoid the common pitfalls.

COURSE CONTENTS

- Categories of directors and qualifications.
- Term and vacation of office.
- Powers of directors.
- Directors' duties, responsibilities and penalties.
- Disclosure of interests – at board meetings, financial statement, directors' report.
- Restrictions of powers – loan to directors, tax-free payment, compensation for loss of office, directors' fees.
- Responsibility in ensuring solvency for capital reduction, redemption of capital, financial assistance, share buyback and dividend payment.
- Company indemnity.

LEARNING OUTCOME

By attending this programme, the participants will be able to:

- Understand how the Companies Act 2016 has enhanced roles and responsibilities of directors and how directors can take pro-active actions.
- Understand the changes in corporate restructuring procedure.
- Note the heavier sanctions and actions to take to defend against enforcement.
- Understand how corporate responsibility can be an integrated element of the business.
