Trust & Integrity Conference 2017

Accountability, Integrity and Trust—the Way Forward for the Profession

CONFERENCE OUTLINE

8.00am REGISTRATION & WELCOME REFRESHMENTS

9.00am WELCOME ADDRESS

MIA President

9.15am Session 1. Stronger Governance for Integrity and Trust in Organisations

Strong governance is crucial to building trust and integrity in all sectors of the global economy. It is the foundation for recovery, growth, and stability, and is essential to the global fight against fraud and corruption. This session highlights the importance of governance in building trust and reputations, and provides guidance on how organisations can institute best governance practices.

10.30am NETWORKING REFRESHMENTS

11.00am Session 2. The Future of Trust and Integrity

IFAC has identified corruption as a scourge that must be tackled by the accounting profession globally. Today, corruption remains pervasive in both the public and private sectors in emerging and developed markets, and must be combatted in order to reinforce trust and confidence in the profession, the broader business community and our nation's capital markets. This presentation covers how accountants can advocate for trust and integrity while addressing the root causes of corruption to promote sustained growth, restore organisational credibility and build stability to safeguard the profession and build the nation.

11.45am Session 3. Trust in Business: Measuring and Managing Trust Levels to Create a Sustainable Business

Can the level of 'trust' a company has with its stakeholders be measured, in order to be managed? This session discusses a possible framework for looking at trust levels in an objective and quantitative manner. We also discuss why it matters to measure trust levels in the first place; how various organisations are measuring and managing their trust levels as part of their strategic agenda; and how putting trust front and centre is a critical part of building a sustainable business. This session helps organisations understand how to restore and maintain trust especially in an environment where internal employees have been neglected. Discover how your organisation can nurture your internal employees to embed a culture of trust, elevate trust levels and boost sustainable performance.

12.45pm LUNCH

1.45pm Session 4. Integrity: A Core Leadership Value

As financial professionals working in business, we agree to abide by the highest standards of ethics, integrity, and trust. Having integrity means you are a trustworthy, reliable, and credible leader. Leaders at all levels must uphold ethical practices to do their jobs the right way or else they face high penalties and damage to their reputation. This panel session examines how leaders can go back to basics to embed best practices of integrity to safeguard their organisational reputation.

2.45pm Session 5. Earning Trust Through Communication

High-quality information underpinned by integrity creates the trust that is required for the effective and efficient functioning of markets and economic development. Using the framework for reporting with integrity, this session explores how organisations can develop better annual reports to provide stakeholders with adequate non-financial information for making their investment decisions, and to reinforce public trust and confidence.

3.30pm Session 6. Building Trust with Blockchain

The Blockchain as a source of trust can be extremely helpful in today's accounting processes and structure. Enabling complete, conclusive verification without a trusted party's intervention, it can be gradually integrated with typical accounting and auditing procedures: starting from securing the integrity of records all the way to enabling completely traceable audit trails. This panel session discusses the potential uses for blockchain approach to verify the integrity of records, and its potential impact on Malaysian accounting and auditing.
