

INSOLVENCY & CORPORATE RESCUE

COURSE INTRODUCTION

When a company enters financial distress, it may signal the impending insolvency and winding up of a company. The company's secured lender may have a right to also appoint a receiver over the company due to the company's inability to pay its debts to the secured lender. A company will want to consider its options in attempting to restructure its debts and to revive its business. Under the Companies Act 2016, the law will now provide for additional options to try to rescue this company and to fend off the liquidation of the company.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Participants will learn the improvements made to the insolvency-related laws as set out in the Companies Act 2016. The receivership provisions have been strengthened and will be relevant to secured lenders and to borrowers. The winding up provisions have been modified in certain aspects. A company can undertake a restructuring of its debts through the scheme of arrangement process and the new provisions adds clarity in this area. Finally, the Companies Act 2016 introduces two new corporate rescue mechanisms: corporate voluntary arrangement and judicial management. Participants will learn how these corporate rescue mechanisms will provide more options to financially distressed companies. The talk will also cover case studies and practical examples.
