ABOUT THE TRAINERS

Koh Jia Fang

Jia Fang is a Director at CCaSS, EY Malaysia. Her expertise lies primarily in financial services and sustainable finance, where she has assisted clients in developing climate risk frameworks and TCFD roadmaps. She is proficient in conducting materiality assessments, setting targets, and ESG data assurance. Jia Fang has conducted various training and awareness sessions for board members and C-suite executives on sustainability and climate risk-related topics for financial institutions and insurance companies.

Jia Fang is also a member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and the Malaysia Institute of Accountants (MIA). She has completed the GRI Certified Training Programme and is recognised as a Certified Sustainability Reporting Specialist by the National Center for Sustainability Reporting.

Sarah Yeoh

Sarah is a Senior Manager at CCaSS, EY Malaysia. With a background in chemical engineering and a strong passion for sustainability and social justice, Sarah brings a unique perspective to the field. She has over a decade of experience in just transition initiatives, advocating for people development and ensuring that workers and communities are not left behind in the transition to a more sustainable society.

Sarah also champions sustainable wage practices and frequently speaks on the importance of equity and fairness. Beyond sustainability, she is a vocal advocate for diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI), believing that true sustainability requires addressing systemic inequalities and promoting social justice for all.

Nurul Hidayah Binti Zulkipli

Nurul is a Manager at CCaSS, EY Malaysia, with a background in environmental consultancy. She has experience in providing consultation on carbon and greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions advisory, renewable energy efficiency, and solid waste management.

Nurul has conducted awareness and capability-building workshops for clients' Board of Directors, C-Suites, and working-level staff to increase awareness of sustainability and climate change issues.
