COURSE INTRODUCTION

The Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements set out the mandatory requirements for disclosure of material transactions entered by a listed issuer or its subsidiaries and prescribe the minimum disclosure requirements for such transactions. The quality of disclosure depends to a large extent, on the information provided by listed issuers and to be meaningful to the shareholders and potential investors, the listed issuer should aim at providing shareholders and investors with comprehensive, accurate and quality information on a timely and even basis as investors will generally accord a premium to the listed issuer which demonstrate greater transparency.
