

MODERNISING DECISION MAKING OF DIRECTORS AND SHAREHOLDERS

COURSE INTRODUCTION

A properly advised company will fulfil its legal obligations when making corporate decisions whether at the board of directors' or at the shareholders' level. Decisions must be made formally and recorded. The validity of company decisions has been challenged because legal formalities have not been complied with. The decision making process has been modernized in the Companies Act 2016 ("Act") as it now allows notice of meetings of board or shareholders to be given electronically or published on website and receiving documents like proxy forms electronically.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course will highlight the statutory requirements in the Act that are relevant and applicable to a board meeting and general meeting. It will highlight the new procedures for passing written resolutions and the new manner of communication with the members. Members' rights to requisite meeting and rights to management review would also be discussed to enable the participants to understand the extent and impact of such rights.

COURSE CONTENTS

- Written resolution – manner of circulation, sample statement on procedure to signify agreement, date of resolution.
- Notice of meeting – proper notice, authority to give notice, accidental omission, period of notice.
- Communication with members – hard copy, electronic form, notice on website.
- Quorum – power to fix quorum, quorum of one, quorum at adjourned meeting, loss of quorum
- Proxy and corporate representatives.
- Voting – methods of voting, poll, proxies.
- Minutes – types of minutes, contents, evidence.
