

RESTRICTED POWER OF DIRECTORS

COURSE INTRODUCTION

Directors have wide powers as are conferred on them by the Constitution of the company and so the reality is that in most companies the directors can make any decision unless the Companies Act 2016 requires a resolution passed at general meeting. To prevent transactions that may result in the dissipation of the company's assets or asset stripping by persons who are in control of the affairs of the company, the Companies Act 2016 has various provisions relating to transactions by directors and impose certain restrictions.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course will first discuss the general and specific duties imposed on the directors by the Companies Act 2016 and the statutory obligations and restrictions imposed on them and the company on certain transactions. Thereafter through case studies' discussion, participants will have a better understanding of the depth expected of a director in his duty to avoid conflict of interest.

COURSE CONTENTS

- Directors' rights, responsibilities & liabilities.
- Who are persons connected to directors?
- Examine the permitted dealings by directors.
- Discuss the division of powers between directors and shareholders in general meeting in relation to property transaction, issuance of shares, payment of fees and benefits and transactions with related parties.
- Review the various financial assistance sanctioned by the Companies Act 2016 to directors and persons connected to them.

LEARNING OUTCOME

By attending this programme, the participants will be able to:

- Understand the statutory obligations and be vigilant in discharging their responsibilities.
- Have a better understanding of the roles and responsibilities of company director and able to comprehend the key compliance requirements of Section 210 to 234 of the Companies Act 2016.
- Raise awareness of challenges for Board in dealing with related party transactions.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Company secretaries, executives in corporate secretarial department, directors, senior management and those advising the Board on corporate proposals.
