

COMPANIES ACT 2016. CHARGES: REGISTRATION, COMPLIANCE & PRACTICE

COURSE INTRODUCTION

The term 'charges' refer to security given by a company over some or all its assets in favour of a creditor. This course will focus on all aspects of the registration of charges under the Companies Act 2016 (Act 777). It will also deal with the relationship between the company and its creditors; and the implications in the event of default with the reference to such registration.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

It is imperative for participants to know the importance of the registration of charges with the Registrar of Companies (the Registrar"). Participants will learn the compliance and enforcement aspects from SSM Officers as well gain knowledge and exposure on practice issues from a practitioner.

COURSE CONTENTS

- Legal requirements under the Companies Act 2016 relating to charges.
- Enforcement for non-compliance relating to charges.
- Related issues with reference to SSM's perspective and judicial pronouncements.
- Procedures for the registration of charges and discharge of charges.
- Assignment of charges.
- Variation of charges.
- Common mistakes made when lodging documents with the Registrar.
- Checklist of information to be lodged with Registrar.
- Comparison of the provisions of the relevant sections of the Companies Act 1965 and those under the Companies Act 2016.
- Applications to Court for an extension of time to register charges or to amend particulars registered.
- Implication on creditors and liquidators if charges are not registered.

LEARNING OUTCOME

By attending this course, the participants will be able to:

- Gain insights into different types of company charges and legal requirements on their registration.
- Prepare checklist of documents to be lodged with the Registrar.
- Be aware of the implications in the event of default.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Company secretaries, lawyers, legal advisers, company directors, bankers and any officers who are involved with work relating to charges.
