REGISTRATION OF BUSINESS (ROB), COMPANY AND LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIP (LLP) & COMMON OFFENCES UNDER ROB ACT 1956, COMPANIES ACT 2016 AND LLP ACT 2012

COURSE INTRODUCTION

Business includes every form of trade, commerce, craftsmanship, calling, profession or other activity carried on for the purposes of gain but does not include any office or employment or any charitable undertaking or any occupation specified in the schedule under the provisions of the Registration of Businesses Act 1956 (ROB Act 1956). Business that may be registered under the ROB Act 1956 is a business operating in West Malaysia which includes Peninsular Malaysia and the Federal Territory.

The modern legal framework in the Companies Act 2016 came into force on 31 January 2017. It consists of five (5) parts, 620 sections and 13 schedules as compared to the Companies Act 1965 which was made up of 12 parts, 374 sections and 10 schedules. The provisions in the Companies Act have introduced many key changes to the principal legislation that governs the formation, operation, termination, regulation and compliance of companies in Malaysia.

Limited liability partnership (LLP) is an alternative business vehicle to carry out business which combines the characteristics of a private company and a conventional partnership. LLP provides limited liability status to its partners and offers flexibility of internal arrangement through an agreement between the partners.
